

A FUNDRAISING EVENT FOR
PARTNERS IN HEALTH and NASHOBA LEARNING GROUP
Bicycle Dreams at Boston College

June 9, 2009 at 6:30 PM
Devlin Hall
Boston College, Chestnut Hill, MA

Cyclist Patrick Autissier is very excited to announce that,

“Thanks to Film Director Stephen Auerbach, I have the great opportunity to do a special screening of his movie Bicycle Dreams here in Boston, MA. This important charitable event will be the first chance to watch the movie on a big screen in the Boston area.

“Nothing is fake in Bicycle Dreams. Real people, real emotions, real drama make this movie very special, whether you’re a cyclist or not! Don’t miss it!”

Stephen Auerbach is “very pleased that Partners in Health (health care options for the poor) and the Nashoba Learning Group (providing help for children with autism) will gain assistance from what is planned as the first of many benefit screenings.

“The film has touched audiences across the country, now it’s time for Bicycle Dreams to help individuals and organizations who need our support.”

For more information on the organizations benefited please visit:
Partners In Health (<http://www.pih.org/home.html>)
Nashoba Learning Group (<http://www.nashobalearninggroup.org/>)

---